

Andrea Carniti

Product Designer — complex applications & design systems

hello@anetarey.com · Warsaw, Poland · arejdych.github.io/andreacarniti

SUMMARY

Product designer with experience across consumer and business web and mobile apps. I approach every project holistically, balancing user needs with business goals. I specialize in complex, data-heavy applications, but equally enjoy consumer products where visual delight and craft take center stage. Passionate about building comprehensive design systems as the foundation for scalable, beautiful products.
